If you arrive in Venezia by train, you can reach the first symposium venue walking for a hundred meters to the right of the Venezia Santa Lucia Station.

If you arrive in Venezia from Marco Polo Airport, you can reach the first symposium venue by:

ACTV Line n° 5, public transportation line. Buses make numerous stops before reaching the bus station of Piazzale Roma. From Piazzale Roma, you can reach the first symposium venue crossing the Bridge of the Costituzione (Calatrava bridge). The journey takes approximately 30 minutes. Buses leave from a stop conveniently located in front of the arrivals area.

About the Symposium venues in Venezia

The International Scientific Symposium will be held in two locations.

The opening ceremony (26th September 2018) will take place at Grandi Stazioni Palace - Fondamenta Santa Lucia, Cannaregio, 23 - Venezia, between the Venezia Santa Lucia Station and the Bridge of the Costituzione (Calatrava bridge).

Other sessions of the symposium (27th and 28th September 2018) will take place at the Palazzo Loredan, headquarters of the Istituto Veneto di Scienze, Lettere ed Arti (Campo Santo Stefano, 2945 - Venezia). Palazzo Loredan will be reached by boat, getting off at the Accademia stop.

Detailed information on the second location of the symposium will be provided to the participants by the Organizing Secretariat.
